DESCRIPTION

Property 1633097724 - NEGRAR

6 Bedrooms

Location and Surrounding Area

Offering a tranquil atmosphere and spectacular views of the surrounding valley, this magnificent six-bedroom villa is ideally located to explore the region's cultural highlights and natural wonders. The Veneto region's sheer variety makes it one of Italy's most captivating areas to discover. The cities of Verona, Padua, and Vicenza are renowned for their architecture, churches, and museums. Though somewhat overshadowed by Venice, the region remains a popular tourist destination with an abundance of attractions.

The villa is just a stone's throw from Verona, a vibrant trading centre, the largest city in Veneto, and one of the most prosperous in Northern Italy. Famous for Shakespeare, Verona attracts a diverse range of tourists to its charming piazzas and streets, many in search of Romeo and Juliet. Beyond the Renaissance romance, Verona's centre boasts impressive Roman ruins and fine palazzi constructed from rosso di Verona, the local pink-tinged limestone. All this is just a short hop from the shores of Lake Garda.

The villa is also a few kilometres from Mantua, a city protected by lakes and anchored by UNESCO-listed Renaissance architecture. Mantua's rich history is deeply connected to the House of Gonzaga, who ruled for 400 years from the early 14th century. The Gonzaga family made Mantua a Renaissance centre, commissioning several grand palaces and solidifying their power through marriages with the influential d'Este family of Ferrara. Much of the city today reflects their legacy.

Vicenza is celebrated as the adoptive city of Andrea Palladio, a stonemason turned influential architect. One of the wealthiest cities in the region, Vicenza is renowned worldwide for its splendid and varied architecture, showcasing the evolution of Palladio's distinctive style. However, Vicenza offers more than just elegant porticoes and balustrades: its dynamic exhibitions, bars, and restaurants provide a vibrant modern atmosphere.

Though less than an hour from Venice, Padua feels like a different world with its medieval marketplaces, Fascist-era façades, and university population. Rich in art and architecture, this university town boasts two particularly notable sights. The magnificent Cappella degli Scrovegni, to the north of the city centre, is renowned for Giotto's lyrical frescoes and forms part of a complex that includes the Eremitani church and museums. The Basilica di Sant'Antonio is one of Italy's most popular pilgrimage destinations.
